MolBioS Student selection criteria

Student selection will be based on analysis of the application (50%), presentation (25%) and interview (25%). The application/cv will be evaluated from 0-10 points, and the presentation and interview will be evaluated with 0-5 points, for a final mark of 0-20 points.

- Analysis of application: 0-10 points

    - Weighted final grade of degrees (3*1st degree+2*Masters/5)†: 0-5 points

    - Research experience: 0-2.5 points
    (Evaluation of previous experience in research and publications)

    - Motivation and adequacy to the program: 0-2.5 points
    (Evaluation of the motivation letter, the reference letters and the profile of the candidate in terms of adequacy to the program areas)

- Presentation: 0-5 points

    (Evaluation of scientific content, organization and clarity, evidence of scientific proficiency and command of English)

- Interview: 0-5 points

    (Evaluation of intelectual and scientific ability, motivation, interest/commitment to science/PhD, and command of English)

†For students with only the curricular part of the Masters course (1st year) the weighted final grade will be: (3*1st degree grade+1*average Masters 1st year grades)/4.