

The chemical structure shows a polymer chain consisting of a poly(alkyl methacrylate) backbone. The side chain of the polymer is a phthalocyanine magnesium complex, which is a macrocyclic ligand with four nitrogen atoms coordinated to a central magnesium atom. The complex is substituted with various groups, including a long alkyl chain, a vinyl group, and a carboxylate group. The structure is shown in a perspective view, with the polymer chain extending into the background.

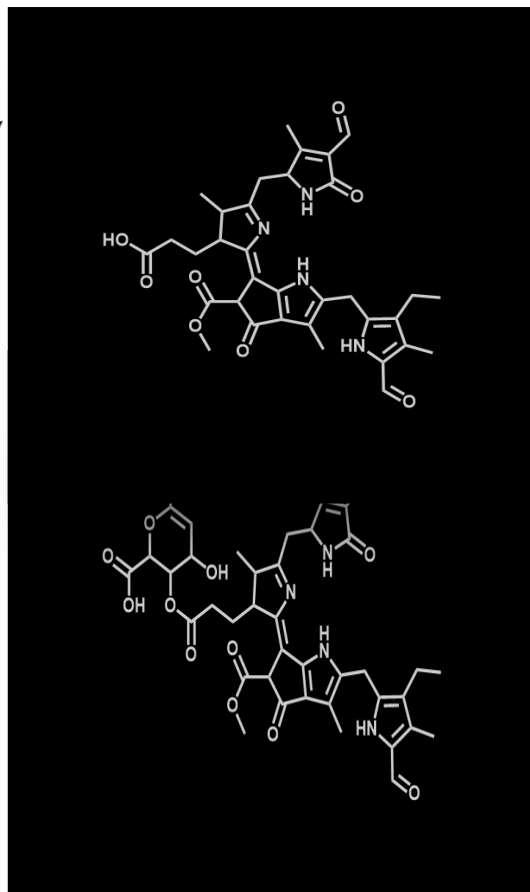

Clorofila

Amadurecimento
acompanhado da
degradação da clorofila

Banana verde

Banana madura

Produtos de degradação da clorofila

www.itqb.unl.pt/experimenta

Liliana Tomé, Isabel Marrucho Lab

Intermédio

Biologia